

Ordered Linked list

EXERCISE D

- You should try the ordered list program given to you in the lecture and make sure that you understand how it works.
- Write the function `lookup()`, which has as input the number to search in an ordered list. It should then return the pointer to that particular item.